

Cultural Heritage at Risk Art and Book Theft: Past, Present, Future

Presented by:

The Heartland Chapter
of
The International Foundation for Cultural Property Protection

Crystallizing the Elements of Cultural Protection

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
NOVEMBER 10TH 2009

A seminar for curators, librarians, registrars, archivists, security and law enforcement officers, private collectors, and any professional responsible cultural property protection

Speakers include:

Noah Charney, Founding Director, Association of Research into Crimes Against Art; author of the novel The Art Thief, and editor of Art and Crime: Exploring the Dark Side of the Art World.

Travis McDade is Curator of Law Rare Books and Assistant Professor of Library Administration at the University of Illinois. He teaches Rare Books, Crime & Punishment at Illinois and is the author of The Book Thief: The True Crimes of Daniel Spiegelman.

- ✓ Screening of documentary, The Rape of Europa, on WWII art theft and repatriation.
- ✓ Presentations by recognized experts on the history and extent of thefts of fine art and library materials.
- ✓ Roundtable discussion featuring Noah Charney, Travis McDade, John Kleberg, Paul Denton and Patrick Maughan.
- ✓ Book signing opportunities with both featured speakers.

All events conducted at The Wexner Center for the Arts' Film and Video Theater, The Ohio State University (1871 N. High St., Columbus)

Parking available at the Ohio Union Garage, south of Mershon Auditorium on High Street.

Check-in and continental breakfast begins at 8:00 a.m. Event begins at 9:00 a.m. and should conclude at 4:30 p.m.

A registration fee of $20.00 will cover all events and refreshments during breaks. (Lunch on your own.)

Sponsored by:

wexner center for the arts

