

CALHOUN COLLEGE MASTER'S TEA

A photograph of Noah Charney, a man with long dark hair, wearing a dark coat and dark pants, standing on a red carpeted balcony. He is looking towards the camera. Behind him is a large glass window that reflects the sky and clouds. Through the window, a large, ornate building with a cross on top is visible, along with some trees and a street with cars.

Noah Charney

Expert on Art Crime

Monday
November 26, 2007
4:30 p.m.

Calhoun College
Master's House
434 College Street